"All fatal auburn nil veri non audemus dicere."—Cicero.

TUESDAY NOVEMBER 3, 1863.

OUR ARGENTINE BARNUM

Some few months past we called the attention of our readers to the monstrous assertions made by the Minister Dominguez in the 'camara.' As, however, his Excellency's remarks were confined to subjects which no one in the Chamber took the trouble to inquire into, he was listened to with that attention which his astonishing credulation never fails to command. His history of the Turkish finances, his graphic description of the Venezuelan loan, was something so approaching the style of a Yankee showman, that ever since we have regarded the Finance Minister of Buenos Ayres as the true Barnum of the River Plate.

In the discussion of the Loan Bill on Friday night, in the Chambers, our financial Barnum made another sweeping assertion, which for the moment silenced all opposition, staggered the members, bamboozled the President, and electrified the crowd in the galleries.

Sr. Varela stated that he could not understand how it was that the Government looked with such apprehension on a loan of five millions, when the National Government was at present exerting itself to introduce into the London market the whole of the national debt.

Minister Dominguez, thinking that now was his time to 'knock the whole Chamber into a cocked hat,' replied that so, unhappily it was, and that the national debt was no less than 'forty millions.' A thrill ran through the house when this ministerial assertion was heard, and poor Forster, who has watched with such anxiety the struggling finances of the nation, gave one cry and swooned. A pin could be heard falling in the house the effect was terrific, and for a moment nothing could be heard save a few Argentine ejaculations. Minister Dominguez had increased the national debt three or ten millions to forty millions. As a matter of course, when the members of the house heard the real financial state of the National Government, from the lips of the minister, they saw at once the truth of Senator Frias's charges against Gelly and Obes, and many thought that they discovered the real cause of Velez Sarsfield's resignation.

It becomes our duty, however, to give the most emphatic contradiction to Minister Dominguez's assertion, to assure foreigners that the total debt of the Argentine Republic does not amount to eleven millions, to tell our Porteño friends that they have every reason to be proud of their Finance Minister, who evidently knows less of the finances of the Republic, than of the salaries paid the Judges of the Supreme Court, of which his brother is so illustrious a member.

It is to be regretted that our provincial Finance Minister, who evidently anxi us to persuade the public of the National Government extravagance, has not attempted to prove the economy of his own government. Formerly, when Sr. Rivetra held office, a monthly statement was published, by which people could judge for themselves of how things were going on; but since his Excellency, Sr. Exaggeration Dominguez has taken office, the public are spared such nonsense. We understand that he condemns the custom as a sort of English innovation not to be tolerated in a free and enlightened South American Republic.

THE STAL FINANCES.

Owing to the nefarious revolution carried on in the Banda Oriental by Flores and his followers, the finances of the country are getting into the most irretrievable condition. Only a few months ago Baron Mauá made the Government a loan of a rather serious magnitude, for the purpose of quelling the revolution; the money has been all spent, but the object has not been accomplished; the unfortunate country is meanwhile is saddled with a debt which sooner or later must be paid. Now a proposed to make a further loan upon the following conditions.

Art. 1st. The Mauá Bank obliges itself to provide the Government of the Republic during the continuance of the present disastrous struggle which devastates this country, all sums necessary to meet the ordinary or extraordinary expenses incurred, such advances to be secured to the Mauá Bank by means of an emission of 6 per cents. with an amortization fund. of one per cent. per annum, said bonds to be issued at the 80 per cent., to the extent of 8 millions, which shall include all obligations known as "internal debt" realised, authorized, or contracted for.

Art. 2. The bonds of five hundred dollars each shall be delivered bearing date the 31st December of this year, and shall be signed by the Finance Minister and Accountant-General.

Art. 3. The interest on these bonds shall be paid half yearly by the Bank of Mauá, out of the proceeds of rents mentioned in Art. 4, in the first fortnight of the months of January and July of each year. The amortization to take place annually, which shall be effected previous to the 31st January by lots.

Art. 4. For the purpose of securing the due and faithful payment of the interest and amortization stipulated, the Government of the Republic pledges themselves the following revenues which shall commence from the 1st January next.

1st. Ten per Cent additional duty upon all articles imported for consumption in the Republic, without any exception or reservation whatever, including articles which even at present enter free of duty.

2nd. Two per cent additional duty upon the value of all produce exported from the Republic, without any exception or whatever

3d. The proceeds of these taxes shall be remitted weekly to the Mauá Bank, in the same manner as the duties are hypothecated for the payment of the internal debt. All which sums shall enjoy the interest established for accounts current.

4. In case the proceeds of the above mentioned taxes shall be insufficient to pay the interest and amortization fund, the deficit shall be made good out of the general revenue of the Republic, and in case that should exceed the sum requisite, then such surplus shall be applied towards the increasing of the amortization fund.

5. In case that the legislative body shall deem it expedient or convenient to charge or sub-stitute other taxes for the purpose of liquidating or securing this debt, it shall be necessary so to do, upon condition that the taxes so substituted shall not be inferior to the revenues which are so changed during the preceding six months.

6. The Republic or State binds itself not to issue any further bonds as internal debt, save and except a single and dearer for an additional loan, which shall correspond with the amount due for int rest and amortization.

7. The Government of the Republic pays to the Mauá Bank for compensation, and for the services the bank shall 2½ per cent. upon the amount paid for interest and amortization, which commission shall be included in the half yearly account current made up of such operation, and the Mauá Bank shall in consideration thereof disburse all the necessary expenses.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals, this 19th October, 1869.

THRESOME FRIENDS.

In another column will be seen a rather hurtful letter from the Rev. W. Gullen, about the South African Mission, which we should scarcely decline to publish, but that we prefer to err from extra benevolence, and feel really anxious to give the public any little light that can be thrown on the mysterious collection. Unfortunately, Dr. O'Reilly is deaf to every challenge, and remains in the background, while Father Gullen is either unwilling or unable to give the explanations required. With all due deference for the ecclesiastical garb and the dignity of a Vicar-General, we arrogate to ourselves a perfect right to know the "ins and outs" of a charitable subscription to which we have contributed. Granted, that Dr. O'Reilly is fully authorised by his superiors, he should publish his credentials. Granted, that the purpose is highly meritorious, we only wish to be saved the imputation, that Irishmen subscribe without knowing for what.

It is true we printed (gratis) circulars for the very rev. collector, but they seem not to have been used, the list before us being made up on ordinary paper, and, if we remember rightly, they expressed "for building a church." This is, however, beside the question, as also the objection to the word "Ethiopian" Missions. In the same manner, the Irish priests here may be called of "the Argentine mission," but no one can deduce from this that our countrymen are Indians.

The insinuation about "knownothings," is correct, as regards the present case, for we really know nothing of Dr. O'Reilly, or the wants, name, and locality of his mission. Nevertheless, we honestly believe that Dr. O'Reilly is no impostor, and, as much for his own sake, as that of the public, we court publicity in the matter.

As to going to Australia and India, the rev. gentleman distinctly stated that he never visited India, but would, perhaps, pass from the West Coast to Australia and India, on his return to Africa. We have, however, said enough on the subject, and will leave it to Dr. O'Reilly's matured taste and experience to leave his generous friends with, or without, explanation.

THE JUDICIAL CRISIS.

We perceive by a notice in one of the Spanish papers that the Government is in the habit of getting new judges to act in the room of old ones.

All the respectable lawyers in town have refused to act unless Dominguez resigns. Meanwhile to meet the difficulty, the Government has committed another blunder, and actually requested the criminal judges to act pro. tem., as civil judges. Besides the inconvenience which this must cause in delaying the hanging or shooting of some dozens of criminals at present lying in our prisons, it is right to observe that the new judges being all criminal lawyers, with neither civil practice nor experience, know as much about the duties of a civil chamber judge or juez de instancia as Handy Andy did about king the champagne. Our blundering but good intentioned Governor should make the Minister's brother resign.

THE FOR S C.MPAIGN.

(From a correspondent.)

Montevideo, Oct. 31, 1863.

In my last I stated that Flores had wasted valuable time beyond the Rio Negro, for, it was impossible that his attempt against the Uruguay ports could be attended with success. Experience has proved this correct, and every day makes it more difficult for Flores to penetrate into the central departments. Salto and Paysandú are impregnable, owing to their strong garrisons, and the divisions of the Government army are rapidly marching on the divers positions assigned to them.

In opinion is now spreading, even among the 'colorados,' that all hope is lost for Flores, and he is in a desperate struggle. Certainly he must have suffered heavily in his retreat before Medina, his troops losing confidence and deserting on all sides, so much so that the Brazilian reinforcements, which he picked up at Tacuarembó, were hardly sufficient to fill the gaps in his ranks. Thus, after a fruitless campaign of 6 months, we have reason to hope that the rebellion has past its worst phase, and is now on the wane.

Colonel Laguna writes, on the 27th, that some stragglers of Flores had arrived at Averias with the news that their chief had been recently defeated. This was wholly untrue for Waldino Urquiza (who was represented to have gained the victory) was in Salto on the 27th, it was impossible for Laguna to know of it, same day, at a distance of 6 or 10 leagues. There was no engagement of any kind, and the stragglers were no doubt, deserters from the rebel army, who abound everywhere.

We have read here, with surprise, a denial by the Buenos Ayrean press that the Argentine Government has received any communication from that of Paraguay. Nevertheless it is a fact notorious to everyone in Buenos Ayres, and the pa iculars known here, are as follows:

The same steamer which brought Sr. Rivas from Paraguay back to Buenos Ayres, in the beginning of September, brought also a note from President Lopez to General Mitre's Government, demanding explanation and complaining of the numerous breaches of neutrality in favoring the rebellion against the Oriental Govt. Paraguay could not view with indifference the menace to the Independence of Banda Oriental, which was calculated to affect the interests of Los Platos in general. The note was, it is said, conceived in most peremptory terms.

The reply was very smooth and polite, denying point blank these violation of neutrality laid at the door of President Mitre. It was, however, destitute of details or explanations, and did not exactly satisfy the object of the Paraguayan note. By the last packet was expected a continuation of the demand for explanations touching the assistance of every kind lent to the filibusters by the Argentine Government. You will, however, observe with me that these particulars ought to have been made known to the public by the journalists of your city who are usually so conversant with the cabinet secrets of the Argentine Government. I have good grounds to assure you that these notes were well known to the editors of the 'Nacion Argentina' and 'Nacional,' which papers, I believe, have joined the 'Tribuna' in denying the existence of such documents.

General Servando Gomez left this city, for the camp, at 6 o'clock this morning, being attended by a numerous staff and escort. He is to take command of Medina's vanguard. Report from the camp shows that Flores is very sick, and hardly able to mount his horse.

I need not tell you that the rebels are still on the other (N) side of Rio Negro, and it is generally thought their army is in a deplorable condition as not to be able to cross again that river.

NORTHERN RAILWAY

We have a number of complaints about the great mismanagement of this line on Sundays and feast days. Yesterday was no exception to this rule, and a great deal of annoyance was caused to passengers coming in from Los Olivos, by the last train, in consequence of the carriages selling more tickets than they could possibly find seats for. Many complain that after paying for first-class tickets, they were obliged to travel in second-class carriages, and then, even in many instances, having to stand up. This is anything but pleasant on a warm day, as all must know at this time of the year. Why do the company sell more tickets than they are able to find seats for?

We have heard many complaints of the incivility of the guards. We even heard of a gentleman who, having paved for a first-class ticket, not finding a seat got into a second-class carriage which was overcrowded, wished to get out found the door locked, and on calling to the guard in charge to let him out was told to wait until he had spoken to several times, and the passenger threatening to get out of the window. Surely, the guard has no right to refuse a passenger egress out of the train, unless the train is in motion, and in this instance it was not the case, for the train did not start for a ten minutes afterwards. And again we have to call attention to the disgraceful conduct of the station-masters, who, instead of keeping carriages to those so overcrowded, to the danger of the passengers and public.

LATEST FROM FLORES.

Flores has raised the sieges of Salto and Paysandu, and marched with his forces to fight Medina, who it is said is in a bad way.

Flores has captured a splendid embroidered banner from Waldino Urquiza, which he has sent with a note to his father, with his best compliments.

Montevideo there is very general feeling that the Government have been very grossly mismanaged, but there is no talk whatever of peace or compromise. Other men are at the head of affairs, and our peace-loving friends, the supporters of the Government, confidently predict success.

It is rumoured that Medina's army is greatly reduced, the majority of the soldiers having deserted to join the rebels.

The new loan of six millions, particulars of which will found in another column, has caused a great deal of talk. Two new taxes have been created: we advise the merchants to abstain them after the December next. The Flores import and export duty should be handed down to posterity, as the debt which this revolution has entailed on the country.

TH CURLEW.

This English war steamer has returned to Montevideo from Maldonado, and has on board fourteen of the crew belonging to the English barque Flowery Land, eleven of whom are charged with mutiny and desertion, and confined on board that vessel. It is said that these prisoners will be sent to England for trial.

THE RESPIGADERA.

The salvors of the greater part of the cargo of this vessel, we understand, have taken the goods to Montevideo, where they have presented their claim for salvage, which we apprehend must be considerable. The Dania, who bought the wreck and effects in $ 0 0, claims everything as his, and asserts that as he bought the whole effects at public auction, which took place by order of the British Consul, our friend Mr. Parish will have to see the property so sold duly delivered.

The South African Subscription

To the Editors of the Standard.

Gentlemen,

The Very Rev. Doctor O'Reilly, Vicar-General of the Cape of Good Hope, who, during his stay amongst us, has won the sympathies of the Irish residents, and of all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance, is about to leave, after bringing to a close the laborious but successful collection he has made to supply the many spiritual wants of the mission he represents. It is painful to think that you undertake a gratuitously the unenviable and disputable task of wounding his feelings and endeavouring to bring discredit on his good Catholic character. In your last issue of the 29th inst. you state that you are not aware "when he intends to return to Africa with the munificent subscription received by him," thus throwing doubt upon his integrity. When you were called upon by Doctor O'Reilly to make some amend in your next number for this injurious insinuation, you not only refused to make it, but you were so wanting in courtesy—to use a stronger term—as to claim the right to see the credentials he has received from the bishop of the diocese in your morning paper of the 31st, and you repeat the same injurious and insulting language and sentiment. After inserting a malicious squib from some contemptible scribbler, who acknowledges that he contributed nothing to the African Mission Fund, and who does not reside in this province, but, according to you, in Cuy Bedos—you assert in a note from the editor what is untrue, viz., that Dr. O'Reilly will continue his tour to Australia and India, the only authority for the assertion being your own fervid imagination, and a morbid disposition to prejudice the character of your countryman, Dr. O'Reilly: but he goes on to remark as to what you write convinced of your utter impudence to harm him in public estimation by your editorial of 29th inst., that "you speak contemptuously of the South African mission, miscalling our Irish Mission in that colony our "Celtic brethren. With the same pen that you might call our numerous Irish settlers in this province your Indian brethren, you have the audacity to say, and unsay that a subscription of 130, 0 0 has been raised "for a one mission which you neither know the name of the locality, nor the wants." The list of subscriptions which you publish is the very same paper of 30th inst. will satisfy you on this point. There are in the Irish priests employed in the diocese of Buenos Ayres, none of whom doubted that Dr. O'Reilly was duly authorised to collect for the Cape mission, much less did they impeach his honor or trustworthiness; and, it is only when you, Editor, refuse to publish, to be satisfied, and to see his credentials, and, as a natural consequence, you make those unfeeling remarks accompanies them with, that Dr. O'Reilly is not in this country, I introduced Doctor O'Reilly to you, as he passed on to Montevideo, and subsequently from Right Rev. Dr. Grimley, Bishop of Cape Town, who was my contemporary in Dublin College, and whom I knew to be one of your services to promote the object of his mission, from which, however, you very soon receded, under an influence which I leave you to conclude. You know the Editor of last year, executed the order for printing the circular, stating the objects of Dr. O'Reilly's mission. He has celebrated Mass in nearly all the churches of the camp, preached in many of them, besides officiating in this city. Is your opposition unfortunate, I may ask, that no priest coming from a foreign diocese is permitted to perform these functions unless he can produce satisfactory credentials and obtain the permission of the Bishop or Ordinary. How dignified and different would be the conduct of the Catholic and Irish Press of Ireland in similar circumstances, where a respectable priest from a remote diocese visited its shores on a mission of charity! Perhaps, in conclusion, to advise you, if you acknowledge yourselves to be Catholics, to abstain in future from intemperate attacks on religion and ecclesiastical matters. The general tendency of your writings on these subjects has been not being original and the ministers into contempt; or, if you will persevere in the reckless career you have adopted, wear yourselves sensibly out. Know ledge, and take your place, not amongst over-scrupulous, but unscrupulous nominal Catholics.

Your obedient servant,

JOHN CULLEN, C.C.,
San Miguel.

HAVRE WOOL MARKET

September 24, 1863.

The business done previous to the selling of the French packet, showed a good demand for wools, but the manufacturers prefer European and Australian wools to River Plate, 730 bales of Rio Plata were sold at prices varying from fls. 54½ to 2fr. 60cts. per kilogram. The barque 'Florian,' from Buenos Ayres, had just arrived with 31 bales of Mestiza wool. The stock of wool in Havre is—

ANTWERP WOOL MARKET

September 24, 1863.

The wool market is very firm, principally, however, for Australia. 3 0 bales of River Plate were sold at full rates.

EMIGRANTS' ASYLUM.

The statements which appeared in Sunday's 'Nacion Argentina' to the effect that the Asylum pays for the carriage of emigrant's luggage to this model lodging house, is altogether incorrect as regards the emigrants per Raymond. We saw one poor man obliged to pay 8s. to a porter to carry his box to the place, and the great bulk of the passengers luggage would have remained all night on the mole had it not been for Rev. Mr. Fahy, who procured a cart which the emigrants themselves loaded

STEAMER EXTRAVAGANCE.

Montevideo, Oct. 31, 1863.

Gentlemen—I have often perused your columns and other articles connected with the River Plate, and agree with you in the vast importance of the new steam lines, and hope these new lines will avoid the rocks that the former Liverpool line of steamers, say Mersey and Pampero split upon, that is, want of economy, it being notorious that they were sold by the dozen a party having transaction with them or a being a ship-chandler's clerk is no sinecure.

For these lines to be at least successful, in their business should be thrown open to competition, and not kept as heretofore a close monopoly of one or two. There are many provision dealers why not offer their business to the lowest contractor, instead of the present plunge. I know several pilots who would have piloted the La Plata and Uruguay for much less than they pay. These may seem little things, but we live in the age of gas, and it would indeed be a pity to lose three new steamers through the gleet of proper economy, because I feel in agreement with you that with them and action we may in a very few years look upon revolutions as things of the past.

Yours very respectfully,
A LOOKER-ON.

Expedition to the Gran Chaco.

By Mr. Hyas, Indian Commissioner.

The most important generalization to be made with regard to these Indians is, that they are all essentially 'riverine,' and for much of the year are absolutely dependent for subsistence upon the success of their river fishery. When the river is swollen by heavy rains they retire to the dried beds of lagoons of the interior, but for the remainder of the year are always to be found on the banks of the Verongo. Their modes of fishing are various. Those who have some intercourse with the whites have begun to make use of hooks and lines, but the greater part are limited to their nets, arrows and lances. The nets are made by the women from the fibre of the 'chaguar,' a plant growing in abundance in the Chaco. But the most important weapon is the lance and its use is as follows:—

The 'soldiers' of the Indians are generally situated at the outlet of some lagoon or 'estuela,' and this outlet is frequently deepened artificially by a single dug by the Indians. At the 'embouchure' they place a row of stakes to obstruct the egress, leaving only a few inches open, and standing by with their weapons, pierce the fish in the act of escaping into the river. It is very singular that a people so essentially 'of the rime' should not possess any canoes, but such is the case; we did not see a single canoe in the whole course of the Verongo. The only canoe which can be assigned for this circumstance is the fact that the whole valley of the Verongo being 'alluvial,' no 'stone of any description is found which might assist in the formation of cutting implements. The Indians are thus obliged to pass the river by swimming, which they do supported upon stakes.

The arms of Indians consist of the bow and arrow, lance and war club. They are all made of the heart of the 'palo santo,' or from another hard wood called 'palo de lanza,' and they are dependent upon the knives which they obtain from the whites for the means of manufacturing them. These weapons are inadequate for the chase, of which is no means of subsistence and their principal use is in fishing. During much of the year the Indians live chiefly upon the fruit or the algaroba, chañar, mistol and a multitude of other fruit-bearing trees. When these fail there is still the fruit of the 'yuchan' or 'palo borracho,' out of a vine called 'tasi.' Agriculture is but little practised, they have no implements suitable for the cultivation of the ground, and their constant change of place prevents them from undertaking it, except upon the most limited scale. A few squashes and a little 'maiz' constitute the whole productions of their agriculture.

Formerly most of these tribes possessed cattle, sheep and horses, but a consequence of pestilence, have lost them, so that at present only those frequenting the frontiers possess them. Their clothing generally consists of a single garment, a poncho, either bought from the whites or woven by the Indian women from wool. One of the first necessities of the Indians is to be supplied with better clothing, since the lack of proper garments subjects them to disease and a frightful mortality on account of exposure to the weather, sleeping, as is their custom, upon the ground.

Having no permanent residences, and seldom remaining more than a few months on the same spot, they do not erect anything more permanent than a hut of branches thatched with grass. Six or eight of these huts are generally built together at the 'embouchure,' natural or artificial of some lagoon or 'estuela' into the river. These miserable tolderias contain no furniture of any description, the whole property of an Indian family can generally be carried on the back.

LOCAL EVENTS.

NAT. G. V. ESCRIB NO.—President Mitre has appointed Mr. J. F. Gutierrez to the new office recen ly created by Congress, National Gov. Escribano.

THE 'BUS.—On Sunday, at the Plaza, eleven omnibuses were crowded both inside and outside every trip. The dodge here has made thousands of pounds hitherto always walked. The Plaza presented a rather gay appearance on Sunday; there were more visitors than usual to-day. The word on the 'cars' "merry-go round" for the wool buyers and sheep farmers to amuse themselves in is generally felt.

THE AZTECS.—This tribe threatens to outdo the Cocktails of Rosario. We learn that it at present numbers some fifty odd members, and that the 'paw wows' are very jolly.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.—Dr. Foster has called in to say that a low, no-n, ruffianly, evil-disposed person was actually cau, ht in the act of stealing the "hole in the Mole." He was, however, we are happy to say, immediately handed over to justice. We hope this fellow will be transported for life by Chief Cavon. Such an instance of daring impertinence, bordering actually on rebellion, was never before known or heard of in this city. We are quite certain that the prisoner must be in the pay of the Cholos.

WOOL WANTED IMMEDIATELY.—We understand that the firm of Saavedra and Acosta are in want of a smart, active fellow to take charge of the books the present book keeper, having made some frightful 'blunders' is about to be discharged without a character.

SI IPWRECKED CARGO.—The American brig-boat 'Kate Sergeant' arrives in Montevideo on Saturday from the Falkland Islands with a general cargo saved from some shipwrecked vessel. Guess, could it be the ill-fated 'Independence.' The company report that the English barque 'Sea Snake,' from Liverpool, for the Pacific, put into Port Stanley in distress.

MESSRS. LUMB, BROTHERS, AND CO.—This Montevideen firm has moved its offices to No. 149 Calle Sarandi.

Mr. GERMAN MARTENS.—This gentleman has received full powers to sign, &c., for Rosenthal, Gayen, and Co., in Montevideo.

LIFE INSURANCE AGENCY.—Mr. Newnham has opened an agency in Montevideo for the 'Mutual Life Assurance Society, London.'

RUN AWAY.—On Sunday, about noon, an undertaker's horse took flight at some fashionably-dressed ladies, and ran away at a most congress-sional speed. The animal was caught near the Plaza Mayo, but not until he first cleared the street and nearly upset a well-dressed young man on horseback.

IMPORTANT LAWSUIT.—Another interesting lawsuit this week comes off between Messrs. Llavallol and the assignees of A. Carneiro. We understand that the point to be decided is what lawyers at home call 'stoppage in transitu'—a very important right in commercial matters. We shall try and get the particulars of the case for publication.

DR ELIZALDE'S DOG.—There is a perfect roar of indignation against Elizalde and his dog. Every one says that he ought to be shot, as perhaps upon the next attack of the latter, he may not be near hand. A deputation of anxious Argentine matrons will shortly wait upon the Chief of Police, that, if not shot, he will at least see that this dog of a minister is properly muzzled.

ALL SOULS, Yesterday there were solemn funeral services, and Masses for the Dead in all the churches of the city.

BAR ARITY. Two carters were running a race yesterday, and one of them knocked down a poor Indian at the corner of calles Salta and Independencia. The unfortunate man's legs were broken in a shocking manner. The coachman, with his usual coolness, was busy with visitors, and ordered the sufferer to be removed to Hospital in a cart.

DUTY FREE. The National Government has ordered our 20 sacks of cotton-seed to be admitted free of import.

MORE IRISHMEN. We are happy to inform our readers that on Sunday last 17 Irishmen landed from Liverpool, per Uruguay. They have all got situations already, and are gone to the camp.

DOUBLOONS.—The rate of ounces in the Custom house for this week has been fixed at $17 ½p. Dr. Elizalde has been determined to enforce it, whether Government shall not lose by the fluctuation of ounces.

ON 'CHANGE.

November 2.

There was not much business on the Bolsa to-day. Doubloons and silk tie ink had rather lebsen'd in value, whilst his great rivals—the ship and produce brokers—seem'd to be remarkably busy. Yesterday's papers announced a still further depreciation, ounces opening at 830, and closing at 837. Some sales which are said to have been effected, were made at 138. Ounces for the end of the year still rule high: 500 were sold to-day at 1321, and we notice more buyers than sellers for that period.

We regret to notice the rather unpropitious state of our cereal crops. It is said that all the wheat already sown in Chivilcoy is completely lost on account of the drought; flour has consequently gone up within the last few days some six dollars per sack. It is only from the district of Chivilcoy we hear this unpleasant news: the clearest accounts from the country towns are not in so lamentable a condition.

The wool market is getting crowded with wool, but buyers are very scarce indeed, we are dropping in daily with their wool. Three cart loads of very superior wool were sold to-day at 80 dols. each, four or five carts more at 83; but we notice the great scarcity of buyers. very best wool in the country if the price passes 80 dol. per arroba. The price passes 80 dol. per arroba. The Americans allege that they only want selecta wool, but whilst they are willing to buy at fair prices. The consequence is, that the market is at the mercy of the French and native buyers. It is rumoured that a very heavy sale of Uruguay wool has been made to-day, but the matter is so hushed up, and the produce brokers try to shroud their transactions with such mystery, that we have not been able to discover the figure.

After Bolsa hours, the talented and popular manager of the Opera Bufa held the drawings for the redemption or amortization of the national bonds. We have not yet heard the numbers drawn.

The new loan in Montevideo was greatly talked of 'on 'Change' to-day. People with the country well, lament with us the sad state of affairs in that once prosperous Republic. There is really nothing more harrowing than to witness the frightful inconsistances, which the folly and ambition of one man is entailing on that country. Millions and millions have been squandered to the Oriental debt, to put down this scandalous revolution, and yet so deadly an object seems as far off as ever. When will people in River Plate get so sick This inctiful struggle of 'colorados' versus 'blancos,' is saddling commerce with taxes, destroying industry; and, worse than all, establishing a precedent in these countries which will yet cost rivers of Argentine blood to efface. The revolution of Flores has cost the Government, up to the present, nearly two millions sterling.

The Uruguay arrived on Sunday from Montevideo.

The Sicilia has left for the outer roads, and we believe is almost entirely full. She has splendid cabin accommodation for passengers.

The River Plate Bank has again reduced its rate of interest allowed on accounts current.

ENGLISH GRAMMAR SCHOOL,
CALLE LARGA DE BARRACAS.

Doct.—Mr. Dungerwell, of the London University college.

This Establishment, which from its foundation has been patronized by the principal British families of Buenos Ayres, is on the exact reproduction of an English School, where a sound commercial education is combined with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages is imparted to the pupils, and based upon the same system as in all first class European institutions of the kind.

An ever-watchful and constant supervision, and a strict maintenance of order and propriety, are a sufficient guarantee, that the moral and behaviour of the pupils, are carefully attended to.

The different branches taught in the English Grammar School comprise the English, French, and Spanish languages, History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in all its parts, Writing, and Religious Instruction.

Extra branches, such as Latin, Mathematics, German, Music and Drawing, are also taught by special masters.

The situation of the English Grammar School, one of the most delightful Quintas of the Calle Larga de Barracas, at the very gates of the city, is one of the most healthful and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.

For particulars apply for prospectuses at the Standard Office, Calle Bolivar 78.

SAVINGS BANK.
BANK MAUA & C.
— No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —
BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the t o great emp riums o the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the saving class in that city, a safe profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

Those advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, workmen & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, ins tead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will op n on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 for the reception of the savings of h- classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefits derived from the course of its operations as to be now regarded as the surest and soundest private, fin and all ays desirous to promote the general welfare.

The Ban of Mauá and Co. are also prepared that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.

p. p. Mauá & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p$] per annum which is liquidated every six months.

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertisements the loss in the public newspapers.
